EPA releases information from ExxonMobil Pipeline Company

(DALLAS—April 13, 2013) Pursuant to Section 308 of the Clean Water Act, EPA has requested information from ExxonMobil regarding the oil released from the Pegasus pipeline disaster in Mayflower, Arkansas. EPA, along with other federal, state and local agencies, are on location to monitor the responsible party, ExxonMobil Pipeline Company's work in addressing the spill impacts. In response to EPA's information request, Exxon has provided additional information. EPA has shared this information with other federal, state and local responders and is also making it available to the public.

More information about cleanup activities is available on the Internet at <http://www.epa.gov/region6/newsevents/index.html> and http://www.adeq.state.ar.us/hazwaste/mayflower\_oil\_spill\_2013/default.htm.
